

Values for Business and Society

Monday, December 1st, 2014 at 18.00 pm, Bratislava (Slovaquia)

Public debate on the role of the business leader within the company and society with all catholic groups of entrepreneurs and entrepreneurs of good will.

18h00-18h20	Registration
18h20	Welcome and Introduction by Jozef Vanco, President of VENITE (the Slovak association) Welcome of Archbishop Zvolensky
18h30	Key note address: Values for Business and Society By H.E. Cardinal Peter K. A. Turkson
19h00	Panel discussion Moderator: Jozef Vančo
Speakers:	H.E. Cardinal Peter K. A. Turkson Jose Maria Simone , President Uniapac International Rolando Medeiros , Member of the Executive Committee of Uniapac, CEO of Elecmetal S.A. Michal Hrabovec , entrepreneur from Slovakia Juraj Habovstiak , entrepreneur from Slovakia Anna Záborská , member of European Parliament

Topics

- What is the long-term value according which you are governing in the company?
- How to achieve the company's prosperity?
- What is the long-term value according which you are governing in the company?
- How do you imagine your company in five to ten years? How do I set the rules in the company?
- How to achieve that employees use their potential for the company?
- Development of the company depends on the personality of the entrepreneur. What are you doing to grow as a person?
- What price am I willing to pay for the success of the company? What is the impact on the success of the entrepreneur's personality?
- Is it a pleasure to do business?
- The contribution of entrepreneurs to society

Conclusions: Dr. Werner Böhler, Ing. Marek Ličák

20h30- 22h00 Reception with Cardinal Turkson and all entrepreneurs
